

JICA Online Seminar for students of fisheries sciences “Development of fisheries in Japan”

27 June 2021, 9:30AM-3:30PM (JST, GMT+9)

Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA) welcomes international students studying about fisheries sciences in Japan to 1 day online seminar to learn basic knowledge of development of fisheries and aquaculture in Japan. The seminar will also provide the latest information about JICA's technical cooperation and opportunities to discuss with other international students all over Japan. Through those interactive learnings, you will be able to deepen the understandings.

* The seminar will be all in English. * Japanese students are also welcomed to participate

- [PROGRAM]
1. Introduction
(Dr. Munechika Ishizaki, Kagoshima University)
 2. Fisheries Policies in Japan
(Dr. Mitsutaku Makino, University of Tokyo)
 3. Fisheries Cooperative Association in Japan
(Dr. Mitsutaku Makino, University of Tokyo)
 4. Development of Aquaculture in Japan
(Dr. Takao Yoshimatsu, Mie University)
 5. JICA's technical cooperation in fisheries fields
(Mr. Nariaki Mikuni, Task Force for JICA Initiative for Fisheries-centered Blue Economy in Island Countries)

[Registration] Access to the Registration Form with the QR code or the URL below;
(<https://forms.gle/4AUvGJ8WpEiwsMco7>)

Registration Deadline: Friday 11th June, 2021

[Contact] For any inquiries please contact to; Hana Matsubara (Marino Forum 21)
matsubara@mf21.or.jp

